BOOK TALK CARDS

ABOUT THE BOOK

Bringing together dinosaurs, sweets, fireworks and more, these active-themed poems will encourage your classroom to 'get moving'!

THEMES:

- Rhythm
- Language
- Imagination

TIME TO TALK

- 1 Which poem do you like best? What do you like about that poem?
- 2 Look at 'Story Stew'. Can you give three things you would like to find in your 'Story Stew' to make a story that would really interest you?
- 3 In 'Football' they use lots of words to describe hitting the ball. What sport do you enjoy? Can you think of any words to describe how you move in that sport?
- 4 How does the rhythm of the poem in 'Ready to race' help add to the feeling that you are in a race? Which words help with this?
- 5 Can you think of any other good words to describe a dragon?
- 6 Can you think of three words to describe a firework? How it moves, the noise, the colours?
- 7 Can you draw a superhero like Super Sloth? What would your character do that makes them super?
- 8 Look at 'I like Rap'... what do you like to do?
- 9 Can you add another animal or noise to the poem 'Animal Talk'?
- 10 'Anywhere' is all about the places that a story can take you. Where would you like your next story to be set?
